Technological trends in 2013.

Welcome to HANNOVER MESSE 2013

From 8 to 12 April 2013 a unique line-up of 11 leading international trade shows will highlight new products, technological innovations and business trends. The program also includes forums, panel discussions and networking events designed to promote knowledge transfer between different sectors of industry.

Keynote theme in 2013: "Integrated Industry"

This year's keynote theme reflects the growing convergence of industrial technologies. Machinery, plant, workpieces and components will in future be able to swap information in real time. Managing technical and electronic integration poses a major challenge. However efficient collaboration between different industrial sectors will also play a pivotal role. At HANNOVER MESSE 2013 you can discover what impact these trends will have on your company.

Partner Country in 2013: Russia

Russia's dynamic economic development and great potential for innovation are attracting increased attention. As Europe's largest natural gas supplier, the Russian Federation will play a central role in the transition to clean power. The "Partner Country" presentation offers unique opportunities to intensify economic ties with Russia and to establish new contacts in the fields of business and science. We recommend that you visit the central stand in Hall 26 and the group presentations at the various trade shows.
