Learn to innovate through design

- Bring new skills and tools back to your work and life
- Engage with world-class experts
- Expand your creative network

CIID is an international hub of creative minds. Its integrated structure creates a unique environment that encompasses world-renowned education, a cutting-edge research group, an award-winning consultancy, and a startup incubator. Our educational offerings include a master's-level Interaction Design Program based in San José, Costa Rica, as well as weeklong design and innovation workshops that take place all over the world as both in person and digital learning. We regularly host public talks, open lectures, social gatherings, and other opportunities for thought leadership and creative collaboration online for our robust digital community.

CIID Digital Learning

Our online courses are designed for live instruction, peer-to-peer learning, and maximum collaboration. You will learn how to practice life-centred design, embrace new technologies, and accelerate the pace of innovation in your career and daily life. The digital format allows for the flexibility to join across multiple time zones and continents.

- When: Multiple individual weeklong workshops throughout summer & autumn 2020
- For whom: CIID Digital Learning is open to everyone. Participants from all around the world, of all backgrounds and all levels of experience are welcome to join. An appetite for trying new things and the willingness to work collaboratively in teams are all that is required. You don't need to have any prior knowledge of (or work experience in) interaction design.
- Faculty: Our international faculty is comprised of experts from a wide range of fields—talented designers, entrepreneurs, technologists, and artists. This is your opportunity to learn from experts who work at the most forward-thinking global companies and organisations.
- Fee: Each workshop costs 8,000 DKK (approx. 1,070 Euros). A fee reduction starting at 15% is offered for 5 or more participants enrolling as a group.
- Structure: The programme has been designed for you to build your own curriculum based on your interests. Each weeklong digital workshop is a standalone module though it is possible to participate in as many workshops as you desire. Workshops generally run Monday–Friday. Workshop hours may vary due to faculty location, please check the specific times for your timezone on our website. Additional networking events may take place outside these hours; please check each individual workshop page on our website for more details.
- Topics: All workshops are taught using the framework of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.
- Enrol now: There are 20 places available for each workshop. Workshops may be cancelled if they don't reach a minimum of 10 participants; if so, you will be offered a spot on another workshop or a voucher for the equivalent amount toward a future workshop.

We would love for you to join us!
